Josh Miller is the new District Manager for Falcon Highlands Metro District. Josh comes to CliftonLarsonAllen (Falcon Highlands Management Firm) from the City of Fort Morgan where he was a member of the City's management team. During his tenure he served in a variety of roles including, the Recreation Director, Director of Community Services, Director of Economic Development, and Assistant to the City Manager. Given his broad development background he was instrumental in the creation of the City's gigabit fiber infrastructure project which provides gigabit internet access to all residents in the City of Fort Morgan. He also contributed to the City's water portfolio to enhance development opportunities and diversify water resources in coordination with the Director of Utilities. Water projects included the Colorado Big Thompson Project (CBT) and the Northern Integrated Supply Project (NISP). Both projects supply the City with water from reservoirs outside of Fort Collins. Josh is excited to join the Falcon Highlands team. Contact information for Josh is available on the Falcon Highlands Metro district website

Doing business with CLA just got easier

Effective January 2, 2018, you can pay all of your CLA invoices through a new client online bill pay system. You can pay through an ACH transfer or with a credit or debit card. It's a single online access point for all of your financial transactions with our firm.

Online bill pay is quick and convenient

Client online bill pay is much like other online payment interfaces, so the process should be easy to use and intuitive for anyone accustomed to paying bills online.

Get started

Next time you receive an invoice from CLA, visit CLAconnect.com/billpay. Simply enter the account number, payment amount, and the requested payment account information. No user profile or login is required for single transactions, but information can be stored for later convenience.
